A. Litigation Involving the Company(i) Tax Matters

- Income Tax Department vs. Vantage Precision Engineering Limited — Demand of ₹1.85 crore raised under Section 143(3) for Assessment Year 2021-22 on account of disallowance of certain depreciation claims on plant and machinery at Unit II, Chakan. The Company has filed an appeal before the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals), Pune (Appeal No. CIT(A)/PN/234/2023-24) and, based on legal advice, believes it has a strong case on merits. No provision has been made; the amount is disclosed as a contingent liability in Note 38 to the Restated Financial Statements.
- GST Range-IV, Pune-I Commissionerate vs. the Company — Show cause notice dated 14th November, 2023 alleging mismatch of input tax credit of ₹0.42 crore for FY 2019-20 under GSTIN 27AABCV1234C1Z5, arising from vendor non-reconciliation. Reply filed on 20th December, 2023; matter is pending adjudication before the Additional Commissioner, CGST, Pune-I.
- Deputy Commissioner of State Tax, Maharashtra vs. the Company — Assessment proceedings for FY 2018-19 under the Maharashtra Value Added Tax Act (legacy period pre-GST transition credit) involving a disputed sum of ₹0.87 crore; matter listed before the Joint Commissioner (Appeals), Pune.

(ii) Civil Litigation

- Ganesh Vithoba Shelar & Ors. vs. Vantage Precision Engineering Limited — Suit for permanent injunction and alleged encroachment relating to a boundary strip of approximately 0.18 acres adjoining the Company's Unit I premises at Bhosari, pending before the Civil Judge (Senior Division), Pune (Regular Civil Suit No. 442/2022). The Company has denied the claim and is contesting the matter.
- Vantage Precision Engineering Limited vs. Precitech Auto Forge Private Limited — Commercial suit for recovery of ₹0.62 crore towards unpaid dues for tooling supplied, filed by the Company before the Commercial Court, Pune, presently at the stage of evidence.

(iii) Labour Matters

1 & 2. Two references pending before the Industrial/Labour Court, Pune, filed by contract workmen engaged through a third-party contractor at Unit I, seeking regularisation of employment and consequential benefits. The Company has taken the position that no direct employer-employee relationship exists, in accordance with the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, and the matters are being contested.

(iv) Consumer Matters

1. A complaint filed by an individual dealer before the District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, Pune, alleging deficiency in after-sales support for spare parts, involving a claim of ₹4.5 lakh; considered not material to the Company's operations.

(v) Regulatory / Statutory Proceedings

1. Show cause notice from the Maharashtra Pollution Control Board (MPCB) dated 8th February, 2024 regarding alleged non-compliance with prescribed effluent discharge norms at Unit I. The Company has since upgraded its effluent treatment plant and submitted a compliance report; the matter stands closed pursuant to MPCB's letter dated 22nd May, 2024, and is retained here for completeness of the litigation history.

(vi) Environmental Matters

Save as disclosed under regulatory proceedings above, there are no separate pending environmental matters against the Company as of the date of this schedule.

(vii) Criminal Matters

Nil. There are no criminal proceedings initiated against the Company, its Promoters, Directors or Group Companies as of the date of this schedule.

B. Litigation Involving the Promoters and Directors

1. Mr. Arvind Madhukar Kulkarni (in his personal capacity, as a partner in a since-dissolved family partnership firm, Kulkarni Engineering Works) — Pending tax reassessment matter relating to Assessment Year 2017-18 involving a disputed demand of ₹0.62 crore, before the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, Pune Bench. Save as disclosed, there is no other litigation against the Promoters or Directors.

C. Litigation Involving Group Companies

The Company does not have any identified Group Companies as defined under the SEBI ICDR Regulations as of the date of this schedule; accordingly, there is no litigation to report under this head.
